A FREE READING BOOM.

The citizens of Baxter Springs will be glad to know that within the past two weeks the ladies have, by united efforts, succeeded in organizing a circulating library and free reading room which will be opened in Mrs. Blood's building south of the English Kitchen about the 1st of May.

A few of the ladies have been planning for this for some time and when the matter was made known to the public everyone interviewed was willing to lend a helping hand. Col. Warner, as soon as he learned of the enterprise, came forward, as he always does in any good work for Baxter, and told the ladies if they would get 40 gentlemen to promise 25 cents per month, this money to be used as a library fund, he would put in the elecbrary fund, he would put in the electric light and keep it running for a sons Thursday where she has a large year free of charge. We hope the cass in painting under the auspices Baxter boys will thank the Colonel of the Lyman art school of this city. many times as they sit evening after a good light.

H. R. Crowell, another hearty supporter of this good undertaking, also stepped into the ranks showing his promising to paper and paint the room and put it in good shape, which has been done.

The ladies had no difficulty in securing the 40 gentlemen members. Bax-its good work will be so full that no work. one can measure it. The books for-merly belonging to the Baxter Circulating Library have been handed over the use of the public, the only differ-ence being the fee will be two cents their journey. per day or ten cents per week instead of a membership by the year as be-The Imported English fore. All books, papers, magazines, way at Kansas City, was in our city shire stallion that took etc., used in the room will be free for this week and gave some very encourthe first premium for the reader's use while in the room.

The association is to be congratulated in having at its start such an able president as Mrs. A. E. Sands. This lady has the welfare of the boys at heart and will use every effort to make the reading room a success, a place where all the boys and girls may feel at home and where many pleasant hours may be spent. Let us all look to this long needed want and let us plan for still greater things in the fu-

Parents should encourage their children to patronize this institution. The hours spent there will be profitable to them, as everything will be done to make the room attractive. * *

SOLDIERS' MEETING AT COLUMBUS. On last Saturday several hundred old soldiers met in convention at Columbus to consider the question of a service pension. The weather was rather inclement which doubtless reduced the number present. Still a goodly number of visitors from abroad were present and a very satisfactory meeting was had. The meeting opened with the old-time "enthuser" known as "Marching Through Georgia" which was followed by music by the Columbus band and a cornet solo by Miss Donna Ice of Baxter Springs, whose age is eleven years. Judge Ritter addressed a welcome to the comrades on behalf of the mayor and a committee of seven on resolutions was appointed. While the committee was out C. W. Daniels made a short speech favoring the service peusion and was followed by Gov. Humphrey, who made a telling speech on behalf of the old soldier.

At the close of Gov. Humphrey's speech the committee on resolutions presented its report which is too lengthy for reproduction here. The resolutions demand the passage of the Ingalis service pension bill and score the bondholders who remained at home and grew rich during the rebellion. They also demand a fulfillment of the promises made by the republicans in 1888, as regards the old soldier, The fashionable and highly bred trotting staland protest against the further redemption of government bonds at a premium.

After the unanimous adoption of the resolutions and the reading of letters of regret from several prominent comrades Col. Warner of Baxter Springs made a telling and interest-ing address.

Other comrades made short talks and the meeting adjourned with the satisfaction of all that good work had been done. CHEAP EXCURSIONS
